

ARDGOWAN HOUSE
CASTLE & GARDENS

HOUSE TOURS

Having belonged to the same family for over 600 years, Ardgowan is steeped in history, mythology and romance. The story of Ardgowan is not only the story of a house, it is the story of a place – and anchored to that place are lives of those who lived, loved, dreamed and died here.

Unlike traditional house tours, the Ardgowan experience is a lively journey through Scottish history, local lore and social history, all enriched with colourful family anecdotes.

WHAT WE OFFER

- ❖ An invitation to look inside a privately owned stately home not otherwise open to the public
- ❖ A curated house tour with one of our knowledgeable and entertaining guides
- ❖ A traditional “high tea” of light refreshments and home baking
- ❖ Complimentary on-site parking and guest wifi
- ❖ Child, baby and accessibility friendly venue

PRICING

Pricing is £25 per person (please see note below on minimum booking numbers).

“...I have never taken the time to provide comments however I must today. What a wonderful knowledgeable host. Treated us like family opening his home. Just an amazing experience, highly recommended for all who enjoy a bit of history...”

– Bonnie Taylor, Google Review

“Outstanding! A must visit! The owner gives a tour of the house and the history of the family stretching back centuries”
